NOTICES

THANK YOU: Heid and Phil would like to say a really big thank you for all your lovely cards and gifts you gave us for Christmas - so kind of you and very much appreciated.

F JOHN SMITH: Died peacefully on 26th December 2021, aged 89, after a short illness. A private cremation will on Monday 17th January at Cam Valley Crematorium with memorial service in Royston Parish Church to be arranged.

FAULTY: A proposal to donate scorched timbers and stone fragments from the church to Royston Museum has been made by the PCC. Faculty details will be on display outside church and on the website (www.roystonparishchurch.org.uk). The faculty will be displayed from the 7th January for 5 weeks.

SAVE THE DATES: we will be having a Prayer Day on Sunday 20th March 2022 to pray for God's continued provision for funds for our church refurbishment. This will be followed by a Gift Day on Saturday 26th March 2022. More details to follow.

SAVE THE DATES! We will be running a 5-week course with St. Mary's, Ashwell starting on Wednesday 19th January at 7.30pm. The course is entitled, Living in Love and Faith and covers Christian teaching and learning about identity, sexuality, relationships and marriage. The following dates will be; January 26th, February 2nd, 9th and 23rd

REGULAR GIVING BY WEEKLY ENVELOPE OR STANDING ORDER - I now have the weekly envelope sets for next year, which I will try to get round to existing users some time next month. If anyone else would like a set, or if an existing user no longer requires one, please could you let me know. Also if anyone would like a standing order form for their regular giving (we don't do direct debit), then I can let you have one. Many thanks on behalf of the PCC to everyone for your financial support, however you choose to give. Brenda S.
